Blogged @ 10:53am on Monday October 19, 2009 @ $2.29 on 6.8 million shares

It was the sheer volume so early on that caught my attention. You can see that even though TIM opened higher than Friday's close, it didn't take long to see the share price spike over $2 dollars. There was a small pullback at about 10:00am but that was all TIM was giving back this morning.

My alert was posted at 10:53am @ $2.29 on 6.8 million shares traded and TIM went on to touch $3.08 around noon hour. By day's end TIM did give some back but not until it had traded over 22 million shares on the day!
